SIX MEN ESCAPE IN SEATTLE JAIL BREAK

Man Thought To Be Chinese Slayer Found Dead

BODY OF WONG CHOW DISCOVERED BY POLICE WITH SHOT THROUGH HEAD

Police Convinced That Murderer of Wah Low Fong,
Leader of Hook Sing Fong, Took His Own Life; Corpse Found Early To-day on Vacant Property in Chinatown.

With a bullet hole bored clean through his head the lifeless body of Wong Chow was discovered by Constable Acreman at 5:30 o'clock this morning in a disused woodyard on Store Street.
In the discovery of Wong Chow's body the police claim to have established the identity of the murderer of Wah Low Fong who was shot down about 8 o'clock last night following an altercation in Chinatown, at the junction of Government and Fisgard Streets.

Wong Chow is said to have been a member of the Shon Yee
Society, while Wah Low Fong was a leader of the Hook Sing
Fong, a Chinese benefit association.

In the altercation which resulted in the murder of Wah Low Fong it is alleged that Wong Chow had been arguing for control by the Shon Yee
of the funds of the Hook Sing Fong Association.

SHOT FOLLOWING ALTERCATION

Wah Low Fong was shot down following a heated argument on the street.

Eyewitnesses of the tragedy claim to have seen two Chinamen in wordy conflict at the intersection of Government and Fisgard Streets shortly after 8 o'clock last night. One of the Chinamen was stout and well proportioned, while the other was slim and tall. The conversation was heated and interspersed with wild gesticulations.

The slim man, in the midst of the argument, suddenly broke away and ran. The heavier, and more corpulent man, gave chase. Suddenly, with a dexterous twist, the slim man stopped in his flight and deliberately fired twice at his pursuer.

Wah Low Fong crumpled and fell to the pavement, and the killer, after glaring for a moment at the prostrate form, suddenly sped away from the scene, rushed down Fisgard Street and disappeared in Chinatown.

CLUTCHED REVOLVER
It was not until 5:30 o'clock this morning that Motorcycle Constable Acreman investigated a vacant woodyard on Store Street near the old Royal Arms Hotel.

He came upon the body of Wong
Chow lying face downwards, a revolver clutched in his right hand and a bullet hole through his temple.
The shells, or three of them, which were found in the chamber of the gun, told their own story.

Bribery in Chicago in Case of Terry Druggan Leads to Investigation

Chicago, Sept. 15.—The Chicago
Herald and Examiner to-day said a $50,000 fund was raised to buy freedom for Terry Druggan, wealthy beer runner, whose immunity from the usual county jail discipline has started a federal grand jury inquiry.
The newspaper says the money
was to purchase privileges for Druggan, including the right to conduct his beer business from his cell, make frequent trips outside the jail, and finally to shorten his term of one year for contempt of court to the minimum.

The pot was to split five ways.
Three men were to get $10,000 each and the other $30,000 was to be split by two men, but one "double-crossed"
the other and kept it all.

BEFORE GRAND JURY
Summonses to appear before the grand jury have been issued for sheriff Peter Hoffman, Wesley Westbrook and Thomas Brockmeyer, former wardens, removed when it was found Druggan had been permitted to leave the jail.

Officials of the jail said Druggan's absence were caused by visits to a dentist. The newspaper says the dentist's office was used by Druggan part of each day as a beer running headquarters.

Druggan faces a charge of attempted murder in connection with the beating of John F. Lovering, former Winnipeg and Regina newspaperman.

TO STAND TRIAL

Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—Hugh D. Cutler, a lawyer, was committed yesterday in police court here for trial on a charge of theft and one of breach of the Law Society Act.

LARGE GARAGE HERE TO COVER BLOCK FRONT

Begg Motor Company Completes Purchase of Site For Largest Automobile Building

Work on Structure on Quadra From Yates to View to Start at Once

Purchase of the entire block frontage on the west side of Quadra Street from Yates and View Streets, was completed today by the Begg Motor Company and a start made on plans for the immediate erection of the finest and almost the largest garage on the Coast.

Announcement of the deal was made at noon by James M. Wood, general manager of the Begg Company here.

The deal gives the company a frontage of sixty feet on Yates Street, sixty feet on View Street and the full block of 24 feet on Quadra.
START TO BUILD AT ONCE

The building, which is to be started immediately, will cover the whole area and will be two stories high.

At present the property is covered by sold old wooden residential buildings with a small restaurant on the corner of Yates and Quadra. The tenants will all have to find residential quarters elsewhere and the present buildings will be demolished.

The Yates-Quadra corner was bought for $15,000 from the British American Paint Company. The View-Quadra corner was bought from the City land commissioner, who has held it for some time as forfeited property. The price paid for this piece was $25,000.

Mr. Wood said that the Begg business had outgrown its present building at 937 View Street, and as a result of the expansion in general business here it was necessary to get larger and up-to-date quarters.

Lull in U.S. Coal Strike at Present

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—John L.
Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, who was in conference yesterday with Governor Pinchot at the Governor's upstate home in Milford, is expected to return to his headquarters here to-day.

A hiatus in anthracite strike developments for the time being appeared to be the general expectation here.

VOTERS OF MAINE APPROVE GREAT PASSAMAQUODDY BAY POWER PLAN

Portland, Maine, Sept. 15.—A $100,000,000 project for harnessing the great tides of the Bay of Fundy, so as to generate from 500,000 to 700,000 horsepower and supply electricity to the eastern section of this country and Canada has been endorsed by the voters of Maine.

The plan, formulated by Dexter P. Cooper, would store up the waters in Passamaquoddy Bay, release them through turbines in a fifteen to twenty-foot drop to Cobequid Bay and supply. It is estimated, 2,268,000,000 kilowatt hours a year, or four times the capacity of Muscle Shoals.

At a special election held yesterday the voters approved the proposal, according to incomplete returns, 39,426 to 4,851.

With King On Coast Now Liberal Campaign In B.C. Getting Into Full Swing

Liberal Government Sure of Working Majority, B.C.
Cabinet Minister Asserts After Touring Dominion; R. G. McPherson Comes Back Into Public Life by Accepting Nomination in South Vancouver; H. G.
Perry May Leave Legislature to Contest Cariboo.

With the arrival of Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, on the Coast last night, the Liberal campaign in British Columbia got into full swing. Dr. King will visit every riding in the Province during the next few weeks to supervise the campaign and to address the electors. The British Columbia Cabinet Minister comes to the Coast after looking over political conditions in the East confident that the Government will have a substantial working majority in the next Parliament.

"In the Maritime Provinces, we are going to gain as much in New Brunswick as we can possibly lose in Nova Scotia," Dr. King asserted. "We are going to hold our own in Quebec and we are going to gain in Ontario. We have twenty-two seats in Ontario now, and after October 29 we shall have at least thirty, and probably nearer thirty-five," Dr. King declared.

"Meighen has given up the West as hopeless. He will gain nothing, while we shall make good gains in the three prairie provinces, and we certainly shall make gains in British Columbia."

"I am not one bit disturbed. The Liberal Party will go back with a good working majority," he said.

MAN FAILED TO END LIFE; THEN TOLD FALSE MURDER TALE

Los Angeles, Sept. 15.—H. W. Gibbons, fifty-one, who last week walked into a newspaper office and told reporters he had murdered
Claude Buttor in a Los Angeles warehouse, eleven years ago, now says his murder story was false. He said he confessed the unsolved murder of Buttor in the hope the state would hang him, and thus end the suspense
he had been under since he discovered he could not muster nerve enough to end his own life. Marital troubles prompted his desire to die, Gibbons said.

when he stepped off a wharf.

HOLLAND WILL REDUCE ARMY

The Hague, Sept. 15.—Pending realization of a League of Nations' hopes of a general limitation of armaments, efforts will be made immediately for a gradual reduction of Holland's military forces, while maintaining a defence compatible with the present international situation.

The policy was enunciated by Queen Wilhelmina here to-day in the speech from the throne opening the new session of the Dutch Parliament.

King arrived in Nova Scotia
this afternoon and to-night, at a meeting in Amherst, will open his general election campaign in the Maritime Provinces.

The meeting in Moncton a week from to-night will be the closing one of Mr. King's tour in the Atlantic provinces.

The Premier is to address a

MASSEY APPOINTMENT
Montreal, Sept. 15.—This is the best reply to criticism that we are putting the agricultural implement manufacturers out of business," Premier King said here last night concerning the appointment of C. Vincent Massey of Toronto as member of the Federal Cabinet without portfolio.

OVATION FOR CANDIDATE
Vancouver, Sept. 15.—Liberals of Vancouver South, in convention last night, nominated R. G. McPherson, former member of the commission, to contest the Federal election, to contest the Federal election. He was opposed by T. W. Fletcher, former reeve of Point Grey. Both made five-minute speeches during the counting of the ballots.

Announcement of the result was followed by an ovation for the candidate who, in a fighting speech, predicted Vancouver South on election day would pass from the Conservative ranks to the Liberal.

Mr. McPherson saw signs of "a victory for the Liberals throughout Canada." The Liberal Government, he said, had taken office under the worst conditions which had faced any government in the history of the country and "had been left by the country and the people."

ROYUN MAN DROWNED
Quebec, Sept. 15.—Frederick Papineau, twenty-six, of Rouyn, was accidentally drowned in the Rouyn diswhich he was paddling with a friend upset in the river. It was learned here to-day.

Fuel Needs of Middle Canada Are Discussed

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The Federal Advisory Fuel Committee is of the opinion that no need for alarm exists at present, in consequence of the strike now in progress in the United States anthracite field. A committee conference which was concluded yesterday was attended by Major Graham Bell, on behalf of Rt. Hon.
G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, Charles A. Magrath, Ottawa, and Fred McCour, Montreal.

PAID IS SUGGESTED
Dr. Nalder made a plea for the city to assist the farmer. He suggested this could be accomplished by the business men, both by example and by teaching the farmer sound business methods, by helping the farmer to study and meet the requirements of customers, and by teaching him how to market with greater economy and by the most direct channels. The farmer was essentially a businessman, he said,
and his success largely depended upon how good a business man he was.

TWO NANAIMO SUSPECTS GAIN FREEDOM IN U.S.

In Seattle T. H. Johnson, James Gambertoli and Four Others, Including Man Convicted of Manslaughter, Break Out of King County Jail and Make Escape
in Prison Physician's Automobile.

Seattle, Sept. 15.—Six prisoners, including one convicted slayer
and three accused in bank robberies, escaped from the King County jail here to-day, using two pistols and a knife fastened on a pole. They fled in the jail physician's automobile.

Those who escaped and who are still at large are:

T. H. Johnson and James Burns (known as James Gambertoli) held pending extradition to British Columbia for trial on a charge of sharing in the $42,000 robbery of the branch of the Royal Bank of Canada in Nanaimo, B.C., December 12, 1924.

Lloyd Richardson, convicted with Floyd Siverly and Charles Fairchild of manslaughter for fatally shooting Patrolman R. B.
Litsey of this city when he entered a house on his beat September 25, 1924.

Alvin Kibborne, held for robbery of the State Bank of Bothell, fifteen miles north of here, June 5, when two companions of his, James Pollock and George Jones, were slain by citizens and Kibborne was wounded.
Edward Watson and Joe Ward.

Word of the jail break in Seattle to-day was telegraphed to the headquarters of the British Columbia Provincial Police in Victoria almost immediately and the descriptions of the men wanted in the Nanaimo bank robbery affair have been circulated to all Canadian police offices on the coast.

According to the testimony offered at the extradition hearings in Seattle, Johnson was picked out by Nanaimo witnesses of the robbery as one of the men who seemed to have a commanding position in the gang which robbed the Nanaimo institution. The man James Burns is known to the Canadian police records as James Gambertoli.

JOHNSON TALL MAN
T. H. Johnson is described as a salesman by occupation, born in California twenty-seven years ago. He is a stoutly built man 6 feet 4 inches in height weighing 219 pounds. He is of a medium complexion, having blue eyes and brown hair. His unusual height makes him a marked man in most circles.

the open, and the magistrate refused

Vancouver, Sept. 15.—One of the objects of Kiwanis, the making for better relationship between the farmers and city men, was discussed at the morning session of the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis District convention here to-day when Dr. Frank Nalder, director of the college of extension of the Washington State Col-

Traces of Forerunners of Mammals Found In Asia

Peking, Sept. 15.—The forerunner of the mammal is believed to have been discovered by Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of the third Asiatic expedition of the United States Museum on Natural History, with the finding of six true mammalian skulls in the Gobi desert. Geologists pronounce the skulls, which were not larger than that of a rat, 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 years older than the age of mammals.

Another discovery upon which Mr. Andrews places great importance is traces of human life which represent transition from the Stone Age through the flint period and to the age of primitive pottery.

TWO RANCHERS KILLED IN DUEL

Livingston, Mont., Sept. 15.—Clar-

Abrahamson, thirty-one, ranchers living near Old Chico, were shot and killed behind the closed doors of the Keough ranch home yesterday in what police say was a quarrel over the breaking of a window.

Police say the men evidently met

DR. TOLMIE A LITTLE OUT IN HIS FIGURES

ACCORDING TO THE REPORT of his speech in this morning's Colonist Dr. Tolmie told a gathering of local Conservatives last night that imports from the United States into this country for the past five years had exceeded our exports by $1,400,000,000. Less than three months ago our morning contemporary published figures dealing with this item of Canadian trade and commerce. Its figures show that the excess of imports over exports, including the twelve months ending last June, is only just a little more than $900,000,000. There is a discrepancy of something like $500,000,000 in the Doctor's estimate and the estimate of The Colonist—the latter, presumably, being compiled upon official statistics.

The past five fiscal years, of course, include the year 1921—the last year of Tory rule—when the adverse balance against us for that particular twelvemonth was nearly $300,000,000. With the advent of the King Government, however, the following year showed an improvement, while in 1924 the gulf had been reduced to a little more than $140,000,000, and this again dwindled by the end of last June to a little more than $80,000,000. It will thus be understood that the balance of trade between Canada and the United States has been rapidly redressed under the policies of the King Government. This encouraging improvement is also reflected in the general trade of the country, the last three years revealing a steady increase in exports and an equally steady decrease in imports. Dr. Tolmie is off the mark in facts and figures.

WHAT NEXT?

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE of how the world is moving in more ways than one is found in an announcement to the effect that flying machines with regular "diners" of the Pullman type, equipped with an electrically-operated buffet, are about to be introduced to the service between London and Paris. And in a short time from now a sleeping car, with berths and a nearly noiseless engine, will transport passengers from Paris to Constantinople.

This is moving with a vengeance. We who are in the procession are losing all sense of proportion because we can not step on to the side of our ancient planet to see the wheels go round. And as an instance of the casual manner in which mankind is availing itself of inventions and discoveries, take this paragraph from The Yorkshire Weekly Post:

"The 'Moth' two-seater aeroplane, which the Yorkshire Aeroplane Club recently acquired, arrived at Roundhay last Tuesday. So that now the club, which has been in existence for some time, and which has a membership of over two hundred, can take an active part in air navigation. And the importance of this event can be realized only when it is known that every member, in ten-hour lessons, and at a cost of £10, can become a reliable pilot."

This is the first machine which the club has secured, but it is expected that, as the membership increases, more machines will be bought; and, since the cost of the low-powered aeroplane is comparatively low, it is supposed that members who have received instruction will purchase machines of their own. The wisdom of this is thus being given to the activities of the Yorkshire Club will mean much to the development of civil aviation for pleasure and business. For it is popular opinion that makes or breaks everything; and the fact that in this case it has produced this enthusiastic band of amateurs ensures at least that the time is not far distant when the aeroplane will be the normal mode of transport.

Less than twenty years ago this paragraph would have done excellently for a work of fiction. In less than twenty years from now the aerial "flier" will be almost as common as the ubiquitous four-wheeled "flivver" is to-day. And the remarkable thing about aviation these days, as far as it relates to heavier-than-air machines, is the rarity of serious accident in the commercial services.

CHEERFUL MR. BEATTY

MR. E. W. BEATTY, THE

President of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, is obviously getting impatient with the politicians of this country who are persistently trying to make out that Canada is in a very bad way and on the road to a still worse condition. His view may easily be deduced from his observations before the directors of the Toronto Fair the other day. Here they are in part:

"Speaking for the directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway, as well as for myself, I can assure you there is no lack of confidence in the country or in its ultimate destiny. It would be extraordinary, in view of their association with a corporation founded entirely upon faith in Canada's future and having justified that confidence by forty years of successful operation, that they should now, by reason of the existence of new and difficult but not insoluble problems, lose their faith and become apostles of gloom."

The president of one of the largest private corporations in the world is in a position to find out all about and understand prevailing conditions. Mr. Beatty's legal mind prevents him from making loose statements. In fact his address from beginning to end presented a striking contrast to the doleful utterances of Mr. Meighen and his lieutenants. But Mr. Beatty was talking hard facts. The conservative leader spins very thin political yarns which actualities prove false.

INCONSISTENT

seriously argue that the Canadian High Commissioner in London should have either remained in lugubrious No. 19 Victoria Street, or in "rooms" at Kinross House, instead of setting up a new establishment that will enable all the employees of the Dominion Government in the metropolis to be housed under one roof? Judged by his comments in respect of the building in Trafalgar Square, recently opened by the King and praised by the press of Great Britain in the warmest of useful advertising terms, the local Federal member apparently objects to that undertaking and calls it an example of extravagance. On the contrary, the investment in Canada House, occupying as it does the choicest and most advantageous site in London, represents the intention of the King Government to keep this country and this country's activities well to the fore in what can still be termed the hub of the Empire.

It is not surprising, of course, that Dr. Tolmie fails to see it in that light. He follows Mr. Meighen and supports Mr. Meighen's objection to a continuation of the British preference. Consequently a Meighen Government, either reducing or removing altogether the inducement now given by the present administration to the British trader, would find considerably less use for a dignified Canadian agency in London because its policy would very materially weaken the commercial interchange now firmly established. How the preference works is best seen in the favorable trade balance of the last two years—$437,000,000 to our credit. Apart from this angle, however, the High Commissioner will undoubtedly be able to effect substantial economies now that the activities of his office are centralized. Dr. Tolmie's attitude is woefully inconsistent with his flag-waving propensities.

COMING BACK

would do well to take notice of a dispatch which the newspapers of this country published recently. It came from Ottawa and it deals with immigration particulars for the month of April to June inclusive. This is what it contained about the return of Canadian citizens from the United States:

In the same three months, 9,141 Canadians who had been in the United States for six months or more and who went to that country to settle, returned to the Dominion. Since the Department of Immigration began to keep a record of these returned Canadians on April 1, 1924, a total of 52,196 have come back up to the end of last June.

It should be noted that the Department takes no notice of those Canadians who have gone to the United States and have remained in the neighboring republic for a period of less than six months. But the United States Department of Immigration notes everybody who enters that domain whether for a long or short period. These figures, as will be readily understood, lend themselves to a much more imposing compilation. They are the figures which Mr. Meighen and the Tory campaigners use. But they misrepresent the situation.

WORK HARD, TORY HEADS URGE PARTY

Take no Chances, Politicians Warn, as Dr. Tolmie is Unamiably Renominated

Conservative Organizer Wants Canadian Duties on Same Level as U.S. Tariff

Local Conservatives prepared last night for a strenuous election fight here when, at a largely-attended convention in the Campbell Building, they unanimously re-nominated Hon. S. F. Tolmie as their candidate.

Warnings to the Conservative organization to take no chances in the forthcoming poll and to see that every Conservative vote in this riding was collected were uttered by Senators G. H. Barnard and H. Green, veteran politicians. The party, they declared, could not afford to lose one stone unturned in its effort to re-elect Dr. Tolmie.

Dr. Tolmie was given an enthusiastic ovation last night. As had been anticipated, no other name was proposed and his unanimous selection was followed by thundering applause and cheers. In thanking the convention Dr. Tolmie reiterated his prediction of Conservative victory through Canada, and echoed the determination of his leader, Mr. Meighen, to raise the Canadian tariff to the level of the American tariff.

Lindley Crease, K.C., in moving Dr. Tolmie's nomination declared that he was a citizen of Victoria wanted Dr. Tolmie to represent them in Ottawa. He added that Dr. Tolmie was the best representative of any riding in Western Canada.

Mrs. Alex. Monteith seconded the nomination, with the remark that she hoped Dr. Tolmie would be a member of a Conservative Government after the election.

No other name was proposed, and the closing of the nominations was the signal for an outburst of applause and cheering, and the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

After expressing his thanks to the convention, Dr. Tolmie sought to make it clear that he was not a Liberal, although he was a member of the Liberal party, he explained, had occurred because he had occupied in the Union Government a seat vacated by a Liberal.

AID IN CAMPAIGN

The four Conservative members of the Legislature, Dr. Tolmie announced, had offered him complete co-operation in managing his campaign, particularly while he was out of the city organizing other constituents.

Accusing the Government of failing to protect Canada in a world-wide era of high tariffs, Dr. Tolmie declared that in the last five years Canada's trade balance with the United States had been unfavorable. He announced that if the Conservatives were elected he would advise Mr. Meighen to raise the Canadian tariff to the level of the United States duties. Without such measures, he said, Canada would never be in a position to bargain with the United States.

Dr. Tolmie went on to accuse the Government of extravagance and mismanagement of immigration. While he favored immigration, the first duty of a government was to look after the people here, who now were forced to follow Canadian jobs to the United States to get jobs.

The Victoria member then proceeded to sketch what he called the follies of the Government. He pointed out the Government's attempt to control the right of entry to the Great Lakes, the Petersen contract an attempt to form a wheat pool, and the recent proposal to create a new Canadian bank.

After accusing the Government of other deficiencies, Dr. Tolmie asserted that the Government's Senate reform program was insincere. If the Senate majority were Liberal instead of Conservative nothing would be heard of reform, he affirmed.

Dr. Tolmie stated that the Conservative Party would not extend any preferential tariff which would adversely affect the lot of Canadian workmen. In addition to giving the country's industries protection the Conservative Party would solve the railway problem by securing the cost of transporting goods from one end of the country to the other. He did not explain how this would be done.

Turning to the prospects of the election Dr. Tolmie found that the Government had lost strength seriously in the last few weeks. He was particularly glad, he said, that the Conservative Party was getting enthusiastic support from the few hundred population of Montreal.

"We're going to get a number of seats in Quebec," he asserted. In Ontario, he said, the Conservatives had built up the most efficient political machine in Canada and would carry out 65 seats out of 82. The Government, he predicted, could not make up on the prairies the strength it would lose in the East while it would add to its support in British Columbia.

Dr. Tolmie warned all Conservatives to go into the fight determined to leave no stone unturned to secure a big majority.

"Remember," he said, "no race is run until the numbers are being up."

Senator Barnard warned the convention that because it had a good candidate it should not expect the election to be a walk-over. He called the election of 1908 when he had beaten the Liberal candidate although no one had expected his success.

"The Conservatives," he urged, should not repeat the Liberals' mistake of that time.

"Elections are not won by prayers," he said. "They're won by money, although it helps a little. They're won by solid hard work and digging."

Senator Green followed Senator Barnard with another warning against lack of preparation in the campaign.

"See that every Conservative vote is polled," he urged, warning the party against taking any chances. The Senator said that everything indicated a Conservative victory.

ESQUIMALT TOLD TO DETAIL LIST OF COMPLAINTS

Premier Says Council Must Deal With Attorney-General and Lands Department

Premier John Oliver, in the absence of Attorney-General A. M. Manson, sent a communication to the Esquimalt Council which was read and discussed at the meeting of that body last night, informing them that they must take their case of alleged breaking of statutes by the Esquimalt Waterworks Company before both Mr. Manson and the Lands Department.

Furthermore, the Premier asserted that the council's letter to himself did not cover infringements of the rights of the municipality, and that before the Government would think of interfering such facts must be shown.

Esquimalt had written to the Government asking for assurance of protection against the acts of the Esquimalt Waterworks Company in their dealings with the City of Victoria and in the matter of the expropriation of the waterworks.

Esquimalt will now make a detailed list of infringements which will be presented in due course to the Government. The council discussed the matter fully last night, and Reeve Matheson appointed a special committee to do this work.

Reeve Matheson claimed that the Esquimalt Council was not a body that should be allowed to break the law, and that the Esquimalt Council was not a body that should be allowed to break the law.

Councillor Pomeroy flayed the attitude and the water commissioner's estimates of various projects, and said that Victoria was wrong in thinking that it had a right to step in and take the Esquimalt Council to task.

Reeve Matheson pointed to Saanich and said that the example in this instance would be enough to warn Esquimalt. He insisted that Victoria put every agreement in black and white, and abide to the letter of the law to everything in regard to the waterworks question.

French Railroads Bonus Engineers For Speeding Up

London, Sept. 15.—Europeans and others touring Europe, have been much shocked in the past few weeks by the series of terrible accidents that have occurred on trains running out of Paris.

And they have been still more shocked to learn of a system said to be in vogue on many French railways. If an engineer brings his train to its destination late he is fined for every minute of delay.

If the engineer who takes over the train at this point makes up some of the lost time, he is given a bonus for every minute of time thus made up.

Approximately this is the system of the French railways. It is a system of bonus and penalty.

"There is nothing to dread in such a journey over modern highways," he said.

Henry made an automobile trip with friends from Washington, D.C., to Oakland, in seven days. He is touring the Pacific Northwest.

At the meeting were John R. Read of Victoria, B.C., president of the British Columbia Automobile Club; Fred J. Elkins, manager of the British Columbia Clubs; Joseph Dunne of Portland, president of the Oregon State Motor Association, and George C. Braden, general manager of the Oregon Club.

I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others." Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

BALKAN PACTS ARE BEING PLANNED NOW

European Statesmen Also Hope Baltic States Will Make Treaties

Geneva, Sept. 15.—Simultaneously with the forthcoming negotiations between the Allies and Germany for a pact guaranteeing the security of the Rhine region, statesmen are nourishing the hope of the creation of other regional European peace pacts, one among the Balkan states and another among the Baltic group. The former would appear to offer more chances of success than the latter, for the Greek Foreign Minister already has mapped out tentative plans for a pact with Yugoslavia and Rumania with Bulgaria. An economic entente already exists between Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia. It is believed here difficulty will arise over an attempt to bring Finland and Poland into a general Baltic arrangement, as Finland is supposed at present not to be disposed to enter into an alliance with Poland because of the difficulties Poland is encountering in attempting to please her minority populations, particularly the Ukrainians. The Ukrainian National Council has circulated a pamphlet among the delegates to the League Assembly entitled "The Reign of Terror in Poland." It alleges Ukrainians in Poland are oppressed and deprived of their elementary rights.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Empty Nest

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
(By Howard R. Garis)

Outside the door of Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, in a low tree, there was a bird's nest. The rabbit gentlemen saw it one morning as he was hopping around, twinkling his pink nose, wondering what he was going to have for breakfast, and what adventure might happen.

"Ha!" A bird's nest! exclaimed Uncle Wiggily as he caught sight of it. "I'm glad of that. Soon some little birds will hatch out and I can feed them crumbe and they will sing for me!"

Uncle Wiggily did not know as much about birds as he did about carrots. For, though he watched for several days, he saw no large birds flying in or out of the nest. "It is strange," the mother bird doesn't come off the eggs once in a while to get something to eat, thought Mr. Longears. "I wonder if anything could have happened to her?" Climbing on a chair, Uncle Wiggily carefully looked in the nest. It was empty. Not an egg nor a bird was in it.

"This is too bad!" said the bunny gentleman. Then he heard the voice of old Mr. Hokey Pokey, the meat turtie, speaking, and Mr. Hokey Pokey said:

"That is an empty nest, Uncle Wiggily, because the little birds were hatched long ago, and they have

"That is an empty nest, Uncle Wiggily."

Down down South with the big birds. There they will remain until Spring comes again."

"I suppose I should have known that," said Uncle Wiggily. "But I didn't. However, I know what I will do. I will get some candy eggs and put them in the empty nest. There are some candy eggs that look just like real birds' eggs. I will put the candy eggs in the nest, some bird may come and try and hatch them. At least I can have an old bird sing to me, if not a young one. Though I know it is the daddly bird who sings the sweetest."

So Uncle Wiggily bought some red, blue, pink, purple and yellow candy eggs and put them up in the nest. Then he hid in the bushes near the tree to watch when some old mother bird might fly in and how to put the eggs. In this way the rabbit thought he would have a bird friend near him.

Soon a late robin fluttered up into the tree. "Ah, ha!" thought Uncle Wiggily. "She will make her home in the nest of candy eggs!" But no! One look told the mother bird that the eggs were none of her dainty blue ones, so away she flew.

Then a wren fluttered up in the tree, and Uncle Wiggily thought surely this little bird would sit on the eggs. But no! The wren gave a single look and away she darted. The nest was too large for her. The eggs were too large, and none were colored like hers. Other birds fluttered to the tree, but they were wise, and as soon as they looked at the many colored eggs they knew they were none of theirs.

Then Uncle Wiggily fell asleep. And when he awakened he saw a fluttering in the leaves of the tree near the nest in which he had put the candy eggs.

"Ah! At last I am lucky!" cried the bunny. "A bird is going to make her home there on my nest and she will be company for me!"

But just then, down out of the tree scrambled Billie Bushytail, the squirrel.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! What do you think?" chattered Billie. "I found a lot of candy eggs up in an old, empty bird's nest and I ate them. The candy eggs were good! I wonder who put them there?"

"I did!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "But this is the last time I shall try to hatch little birds out of candy eggs! It can't be done!"

Then Billie gave his mother some of the candy eggs and they laughed merrily. And if the match doesn't catch fire and burn its fingers when it falls on its head off the gas stove, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the red apple.

Y.W.C.A. COMMITTEE HELD MEETING

Mrs. Charles Bishop, General Secretary, Granted Holiday

The regular monthly meeting of the Y.W.C.A. committee was held on Friday, with the president, Miss Hall, in the chair, and twenty-one members present.

President welcomed Mrs. Plunkett back to work after her trip to England.

Mrs. Charles Bishop having been granted six months' leave of absence for a much needed rest, Miss Carolyn De Wolfe, formerly connected with the association here, was appointed to act as general secretary.

Miss A. M. Wood, assistant secretary, is returning to her home in the East, and her resignation was received with keen regret. Several members of the committee paid high tributes to her untiring service.

Miss Winifred Drayton, recently of Toronto, will take up Miss Wood's work. The committee is very grateful to the employees of the New Method Laundry for their generous contribution to the building fund.

Many interesting visitors were entertained at the "Y" during the Summer, among them several secretaries of district associations.

Reports from the membership, travelers' aid, finance, house and religious work and girls' work committees were read and adopted. In addition to the treasurer's and secretary's reports.

The membership committee announced their intention of holding a bazaar and sale of work on November 8.

Reports of the successful garden party held at Miss Agnew's home in July were given by the girls' work committee, much of its success being due to the kindness of Miss Agnew and to Mrs. Cummings in presenting her play, "Sherwood Forest."

Mrs. Newbury and her assistants were given a sincere vote of thanks for the work in decorating the "Y" float for the parade during the July Carnival. The float won first prize in the sport and athletic section and carried the "Y" by sixty dollars.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Adverse figures again rule in the stellar forecast. Troublesome conditions are heralded for all new ventures and affairs generally may quite suddenly assume menacing aspects. It would be well to be safeguarded from fraud or trickery by means of papers or writings. While personal affairs may be less annoying, even these may exhibit strange features, since both the eccentric planets, Neptune and Uranus, are under solar aspect.

Those whose birthday it is should protect themselves from all kinds of trouble and deception during the year, by strict attention to details and handling all manner of writings with precaution. Even social, domestic and romantic affections should be safeguarded from irregularities. A child born on this day is likely to be well favored with talents but may be subject to strange experiences in business as well as in its personal affairs. It should be well instructed in measures for its protection against deception and subtlety.

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

WOMEN'S COUNCIL ADDRESSED AT MEETING YESTERDAY

Judge Helen McGill of Vancouver and Dr. Wace Were Speakers

At the meeting of the Local Council of Women held yesterday afternoon Judge Helen McGill, of Vancouver, and Dr. Wace, of Victoria, addressed the members.

Mrs. McGill, who was a delegate to the sixth quinquennial conference of the International Council of Women held at Washington, gave her impressions on the outstanding features of the gathering, among which were the variety of languages, particularly the variety of English; the spirit of co-operation that permeated the meeting; and the democratic character of the gathering representing all ranks in life.

Mrs. McGill gave a summary of the resolutions which dealt with international goodwill, equal moral standard, suppression of white slave traffic, drug traffic, the raising of the age of conscription, and the equal political education and exercise of the franchise and disarmament and peace.

In regard to the latter, the discussion was on the basis that peace would be obtained by striving towards the ideal of regarding neighboring countries as peaceful neighbors rather than enemies.

The resolution endorsing women police was passed unanimously. All countries wanted police women.

Dr. Wace spoke of the work done in Switzerland by Rollier in his sanatorium and showed pictures of children in that institution that from the treatment received were on the way to normal health.

In regard to the climate suitable for such an institution, Dr. Wace said that Vancouver Island offered the most ideal climate in North America and that the land chosen for the site at Mill Bay had all the requisites necessary—that of equitable temperature, abundant fresh air, sea bathing and a clear atmosphere, in addition to being within an easy distance from Victoria and other island points, as well as being sufficiently removed from the excitement of the cities.

In regard to criticism that another hospital was not required, Dr. Wace pointed out that the sanatorium would not duplicate any institution, as neither acute nor chronic, but serious operative cases would be taken, it being only for the treatment of long cases, where children, neglected for years, could be treated and have individual attention.

As a result they would be brought back to health as nearly normal as possible, and be educated and trained for suitable occupations. The estimated cost of the sanatorium will be about $30,000, for which there will be accommodation for thirty-two children and for which a day will be held here and in Vancouver on November 28.

The cost of maintenance of a bed was roughly estimated at $1.50 per day, and Dr. Wace hoped that various philanthropic institutions in the city would endow beds.

The Alumnae Association of the Jubilee Hospital held their quarterly meeting last night at the hospital, with a large number of members in attendance. Plans for a rummage sale to be held on October 10 were made, and an announcement was made later as to headquarters for the sale.

The next meeting of the association will be held on October 12 at the home of Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Rockland Avenue.

AGAIN NOMINATED IN FARMER RANKS; AGNES MACPAIL

Durham, Ont., Sept. 15.—Miss Agnes Macpail, Canada's first woman member of Parliament, was yesterday unanimously nominated by the United Farmers of Ontario Grey—County of Living in Ottawa are high, Miss Macpail intimated in explaining her position on the indemnity question. Four years ago she announced that if elected she would accept only $2,500 of the $4,000 paid to members; to-day she frankly stated she had "been a complete fool" to make that promise. "I could have used it for many useful purposes."

If she goes back to Ottawa she will accept the full indemnity; but at the same time she pledged herself to work for a reduction in the amount paid to all members.

PRETTY WEDDING HELD LAST EVENING

Miss Ruth Cochrane and Mr. James Lindsay Alexander Married

Last evening, at 8 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cochrane on Linden Avenue was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their only daughter, Ruth Simon, was united in marriage to Mr. James Lindsay Alexander, of the Forestry branch of the Provincial Buildings, formerly of Toronto, by the Rev. Dr. Clay.</

AT THE THEATRES

"BLACK CYCLONE" AN ASTOUNDING HORSE DRAMA

"Black Cyclone" is a picture that will cause a lot of talk—in fact, yesterday the Dominion Theatre was buzzing with appreciative comment during and after the showing of this astounding horse drama, in which Hal Rosson portrays his magnificent wild stallion, Rex. When they were not marveling over the intelligence of the horse, they were laughing over its several delightful humorous incidents, ah-ing and oh-ing over its beautiful scenery and splendid photography, and excited over its many thrills. In fact, when the hero prays for the fastest horse in the world, that he may ride to the rescue of his sweetheart, the air is tense with excitement when Rex dashes up and the man, leaping on the horse, who is without saddle or bridle, stages the wildest ride the screen has ever seen.

This wonderful riding is performed by Guinn Williams, who, as the hero of the human story woven throughout "Black Cyclone," has little to do, but distinguishes himself nevertheless. It is he who risks his life to get Rex out of the deadly quicksands. It is he who tries to mount Rex and is thrown twice—and they're then spilt! It is he who is the only man admitted to Rex's friendship, and it is he who really brings to Rex supreme victory, for it was not until Rex saw him winning in a battle with his enemy, that the blaze of battle entered Rex's heart and he plunged into conflict with the Killer, determined to vanquish his foe forever.

REGINALD DENNY AT CAPITOL IN BIG LAUGH SHOW

The fastest sight-seeing tour on record occurs in Reginald Denny's latest Universal-Jewel feature, "I'll Show You the Town," now showing at the Capitol Theatre. With just thirty minutes in which to show a wealthy widow the sights of the town, Denny accomplishes the unusual feat in less than a quarter of an hour. The customary rubber-neck-wagon or Rolls Royce, was discarded by the star who rejoiced in the opportunity to ride his old hot-burner, his slinger, "Clay Fitzgerald," who plays one of the character leads in the production, was given the thrill of her life as Denny's champion in a hurried flight over a metropolitan city.

BETTY JEWEL IS AGAIN "ADOPTED" IN NATIONAL FILM

Betty Jewel is always being "adopted." She got her first film role in this way. The latest of her benefactors was Earl Hudson, who "adopted" her to support Ben Lyon and Viola Dana in his latest First National picture, "The Necessary Evil," now showing at the Playhouse Theatre.

EXCEPTIONAL SEA SCENES ARE SHOWN IN "THE SEA HAWK"

Occasionally movie-theatre patrons have an opportunity to view a photograph with tremendous settings, an excellent acting, superbly produced or dramatically brilliant, but last night at the Columbia Theatre local film lovers had opportunity to view a photograph which possessed all of these qualities.

For weeks local film fans have looked forward to the presentation of Frank Lloyd's First National picture, "The Sea Hawk" with lofty expectations. Last night opportunity to view the much heralded picture arrived.

"The Sea Hawk" is a master picture. There are many big scenes, many big settings and much action to hold one intently interested throughout its twelve reels.

Never have such scenes as those of the big Sixteenth Century ships engaged in actual combat with several hundred galleys and fighting men active in the fray, on each ship, been reflected on the screen before. Never have we seen so much appealing action in quaint Algerian settings before and never have we seen a production with so many large groups and so many tremendous settings maintain such a fast tempo throughout without a single lull moment.

"The Sea Hawk" is a long picture but it is so full of stirring action it seems hardly longer than the average seven reeler and what transpires on the screen is so realistically done that one is completely enveloped with the spirit of it.

ALL NEXT WEEK
The Epic Railroad Drama of the Canadian Pioneers

WILLIAM FOX presents

THE IRON HORSE

Blazing the Trail of Love and Civilization

"The Iron Horse" is heartily endorsed by all the Canadian railroad and construction companies as a wonderful film.

"THE IRON HORSE" IS COMING TO THE CAPITOL MONDAY

Grim humor was most common among the railroad builders in the sixties when the first ties were put down to unite the East and West. The romantic record of this era has been brought to the screen by William Fox in his newest super-production, "The Iron Horse," which comes to the Capitol Theatre next week for six days.

Men who held a pass on the Central or the Union Pacific lines in those days and who also carried a gun, might ride free as long as they had their passes. Otherwise, somebody took the pass away, and laughed grimly. Fights for rights were serious matters among the railroads of the early days.

The men of the one road would load the feed pipes of another with soap. And when the engineer would hit a grade he found his boiler full of lather and his newest super-production, "The Iron Horse," which comes to the Capitol Theatre next week for six days.

When the telegraph lines followed the rail, the Indians did steady, the Indians would shoot off the insulators and use the poles for fire wood. Buffalo used the poles for scratching their backs. The Indians would then take the poles and use them for fire wood. Buffalo used the poles for scratching their backs. The Indians would then take the poles and use them for fire wood.

John Ford was the director and he did everything on a big scale. He used a whole regiment of soldiers and a whole regiment of scouts. An enormous cast of scrappy players, George O'Brien, Madge Bellamy and J. Farrell MacDonald have the leading roles in one of the most capable cases Fox has ever assembled during a career of twenty-one years as a motion picture producer.

BETTY JEWEL IS AGAIN "ADOPTED" IN NATIONAL FILM

Betty Jewel is always being "adopted." She got her first film role in this way. The latest of her benefactors was Earl Hudson, who "adopted" her to support Ben Lyon and Viola Dana in his latest First National picture, "The Necessary Evil," now showing at the Playhouse Theatre.

Betty became Dame Fortune's foster child three years ago when she accompanied a friend who had a letter to D. W. Griffith. Griffith spotted Betty as she was waiting for a bus at the studio gate. He gave her a part in his "Orphans of the Storm."

Miss Jewel was born in Omaha and was educated in schools near New York City. She was a slender girl of seventeen, with big brown eyes and mobile features, when she paid her first visit to a studio without the faintest dream that she was to become an actress.

Griffith used her in two pictures following her first effort—"One Exciting Night" and "The Little Rose." Then she was adopted by the Fox lot, where she had her first leading part in "Silent Command." She then went to Hollywood and was leading woman to Tom Mix in "Millie's Minute Romance."

Her most recent pictures prior to "The Necessary Evil" were "The Rejected Woman," "The Necessary Evil," "Miss Bluebeard" and "The Life of Franz Liszt."

THIS FUNSTER DOES NOT PULL HEART STRINGS

New York, Sept. 15.—Johnny Hines is the one screen funster who stubbornly resists the modern tendency of film comedians to appeal first to the heart of the spectator and then, having captivated that old fountain of humor, to play upon the adjoining reservoir of laughter.

Hines makes not the slightest attempt at heart appeal. Let others like Chaplin and Keaton and Hamiliton be pathetic if they must. Johnny is content to remain the cocksure guy, the show-off, the boy who always triumphs the roistering hero who trips others but is himself never tripped up.

So he shows himself again in "The Live Wire," done for First National. If Hines proves you with his antics at all, you laugh with him, not at him.

And "The Live Wire" is filled with that kind of snap, loosely assembled on a story thread mainly told in titles.

The comedy is built chiefly upon the prowess of Hines as a circus man who does a perilous head-stand on a tight wire.

That trick enables him, at the tense moment when the heroine is in hot water, to get upon his feet in the midst of impending villainy and to scatter his antagonists like so much chaff. A trained circus elephant gives him slight aid.

With similar ease and adroitness, he wins the girl by demonstrating business ability to her father—the climax depending upon his getting electric light and power to an amusement park in time to foil the powers of darkness. The picture is a typical Hines complication of the worth of that grand old ditty, "Smile and the world smiles with you."

MADAME LUGRIN FAHEY

WILL SING OUTSTANDING NUMBERS AT RECITAL

Among the outstanding numbers to be sung by the great soprano, Madame Winnifred Lugrin Fahey, at St. John's Church this evening, will be "My Heart Ever Faithful," "I Will Extol Thee," "Gossamer," "The Song of the Lark" and a group of sacred songs by eminent writers.

HOO HOO CLUBS ARE MEETING IN SPOKANE

Spokane, Sept. 15.—Some 200 men interested in the lumber business in some manner are attending the sessions of the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Concatenated Order of Hoo Hoo here. They received the welcome of the Chamber of Commerce from Harlan I. Peyton, president, and heard reports of their officers yesterday.

H. R. Johnson, international secretary-treasurer of the activities of Friends of the Forest, the public educational movement of the order, recommended that the organization devote its forestry educational efforts toward fire suppression. He proposed that all members of the order pledge themselves to co-operate with federal, state and provincial forest services of the United States and Canada "in the promotion of public interest in conservation and reforestation."

He reported the addition of 2,322 members during the past year, and that the number of Hoo Hoo clubs had increased from thirty to fifty, total membership now being 9,339.

Great Party Of Capital Golfers To Visit Seattle

Colwood and Victoria Golf Clubs Sending Teams For Week-end Matches

Victoria Seeks Possession of Strutt Cup; Colwood Plays Two Matches

Between sixty and seventy golfers will leave here next Friday for return engagements with three Seattle clubs. The locals are repaying visits paid here early in the Spring by teams from Puget Sound.

The Victoria Golf Club will engage the Seattle Golf Club in the final half of the match of the Strutt Cup. The locals are entering a squad of twenty-five, which includes a number of bright young players. The club will have available a very strong team, which is expected to be a real test.

The Victoria team enters the match with a fourteen-point lead, gained in the first half here. The match will be decided on two rounds of singles, eighteen holes each. Although the lead enjoyed by the Capital Golfers is fairly respectable they anticipated a very close and hard-fought match and feel that they will need their greatest strength to pull out a win.

Seattle has won the match for the past three years.

The Colwood Golf Club will play two visits over the week-end. They will meet the Rainier Golf Club on Sunday and the Victoria Golf Club on Monday. Both matches will be decided on singles in the morning and fourball matches in the afternoon.

The Colwood Club will number among its side Ed McQuade, who, on Sunday, won the city golf championship by defeating Jack Heston in the 36-hole final. Another member will be Frank Thomas, last year's local champion, who on Sunday established an amateur record at the Colwood course. He went around in 71, one less than "Chick" Evans, who had a 72 during his recent visit to the city, and one under the professional record made by Willie Black, now of Bellingham.

The Colwood Golfers who will make the trip are: Frank Thomas, B. P. Schwengers, E. C. McQuade, Dr. Boyd, H. P. Hodges, G. Y. Simpson, J. M. Wood, J. N. Findlay, R. J. Dargus, C. I. McKennie, C. Gallin, L. D. Rines, H. A. Lineham, Dr. Bryant, C. S. Whiting, W. Rasmussen, Geo. Wilkerson, H. B. Taylor, H. Richardson, G. Terry, B. R. Cline, H. A. Hinkins, J. H. Stevens, E. H. Horsey, J. R. Kipling, A. Muir, R. H. Brendley, F. W. C. Smith, S. Terry, L. W. Slade, C. M. Birnie, Lester Patrick, H. T. Matson, P. C. Abel, and G. Brady. These players will meet in the morning at the Colwood course and will play the following day there will be several additional players. Members of the team are asked to note that the Ingleswood Club will entertain them at dinner on Saturday.

Scandal Already Over Tickets For World's Series

Dish-washer Found in Possession of Proof Ticket; Officials Sat at Midnight

Washington, Sept. 15.—Preparations of the Washington baseball club in anticipation of another world series here have caused a slight setback but not on the ball park.

What appeared to be a perfectly good ticket, to a world series game, was revealed here last night. Club officials held a hasty midnight conference, with several city detectives in attendance. The upshot of the meeting was a decision to destroy the engraving for the tickets which already had been registered at the patent office and order another engraving. The action was taken, it was explained, to dismiss any fears of a possible circulation of spurious world series tickets.

Conway, a dish washer by night, who turned out to be by day, an employee of the patent office, who was in possession of the ticket, also attended the conference of club officials and detectives and was said to have stated that he obtained permission from the attorney who brought the proof of the ticket to the patent office.

FOR "SOCIAL" PURPOSES

Conway was questioned at considerable length by a number of interested gentlemen. He convinced them that his copy was singular, exclusive, and of a "social" character; that a flood of spurious tickets threatened the capital on the eve of an historic occasion.

A statement was made that an attorney had given him permission to make his copy of the ticket, however, remained interesting to the patent office. It will be the last chapter of the story of an investigation which Acting Commissioner Kernan indicated would go particularly into this phase of the matter. Disbarment from practice before the patent office, he intimated, is a possibility if any unethical act on the part of an attorney is brought to light.

To Manage Portland

Pete Muldoon

Pete Muldoon is back in the hockey harness once more. The big ex-pilot of the Seattle hockey team has signed to manage the Portland Rosebuds this coming hockey season and he left Vancouver for Calgary and the scene of the annual meeting of the league yesterday with the Pacific brothers.

Pete has been aiming for the big capital for some time. The big ex-pilot of the Seattle hockey team has signed to manage the Portland Rosebuds this coming hockey season and he left Vancouver for Calgary and the scene of the annual meeting of the league yesterday with the Pacific brothers.

Peter says Seattle will be in the league again next year and meantime he is going to see if the Regina players, now Portland property, cannot be consolidated into a single team. Muldoon has some great talent in the club he directs and he intimates that no expense will be spared, within reason, to make it a title contender from the start.

First Division League Looking For Banner Year

Five or Six Elevens Will Compete This Season; James Island Seeks Entry

Five or six football teams will comprise the First Division League this winter. At a meeting of the council of the senior league held last night in the Y.M.C.A. building, received from Victoria Wests, Equitair, United, United Services, Equitair and Sons of England.

For the first time in the history of the Saturday League a suburban eleven has requested an entry. James Island has sent in an application and are very anxious to join the league. In order to consider this application a meeting of the council and delegates will be held in the "Y" to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. It will then be decided whether or not the Islanders will be allowed to compete.

The league is looking for a most successful season, and whether five or six teams compete, they are confident of good football. The teams are all displaying a great interest and competition should be keen.

JUNIORS TO MEET

All delegates to the juvenile and junior football leagues are urged to attend the meeting to-night of these bodies in the Veterans of France quarters, at 7.30 o'clock. Entries for the leagues must be in by to-night.

Pittsburg Regains Winning Streak But Philadelphia Loses

Pirates Win Behind Pitching of Aldridge, Who Won Seventh Straight Game

Teams Switching Around For Series Which Will Settle Position of Teams

New York, Sept. 15.—Major League clubs are enmeshed in their annual inter-sectional tussle of the 1925 season to-day with first division teams pitted against the leaders in both circuits.

Pittsburg regained its winning streak after taking four setbacks in succession by beating Brooklyn 9-4. Aldridge was master in the box, winning his seventh straight game.

The Athletics lost ground in their forlorn pennant chase by dropping the final of a six-game series to New York 3-1.

Although idle, the world champion Senators gained by the Athletics' defeat and their lead was increased to eight games.

Washington has the Tigers for opponents in the opener of a series to-day. Since their last visit to the Capital, the Tigers have become a more formidable club and are now hard on the heels of the Browns for third place.

First Round Of U.S. Net Tourney Free From Upset

American and Foreign Stars Sweep Through Games Without Being Extended

One Frenchman Forced to Default, While Lacoste Gets Leave From Army

Forest Hills, Sept. 15.—Form predominated in the National tennis championships of the courts of the Westside Tennis Club yesterday, and a single upset, piercing the placid atmosphere of the tournament.

So true was the play to form that only four sets were lost by the fourteen American and foreign-seeded stars.

In the early-evening matches played, only seven went to our sets, while two others were dragged along to the limit of five sets before arriving at decision.

Wm. T. Tilden II, Philadelphia, the playing through champion, had little trouble eliminating his fellow townsman, Carl Fletcher, despite the score. Tilden topped with his rival, softening up his service and drives until pressed for a point, when he applied the pressure and rode through safely.

Tilden won 7-5, 6-0, 7-5. Howard O. Kinsey, of Francisco, No. 4, of the National ranking list, was given a scare by Masonouke Fukuda, when the little Oriental took the first set at 4-6, but Kinsey came back to win the next three sets, and the match. Kinsey's defeat in the first set was the only set dropped by a player in the tournament.

FRENCHMAN DEFAULTS

Decugis, captain of the French Davis Cup team, was forced to default his match to Alfred H. Chaplin, owing to the fact he had booked passage for France on Wednesday.

Jose M. Alonso of Spain, Masonouke Fukuda of Japan and H. I. Wankar of Japan were the other foreigners to be tossed into the discard.

William H. Johnston of San Francisco, favorite to reach the round in the upper bracket, won in straight sets from Horace G. Orser of New York, National Indoor junior champion, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N.Y., was responsible for the defeat of one of the favorite stars, H. I. Wankar. Richards won, 6-0, 6-1, 6-2.

Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle eliminated Jose M. Alonso of Spain, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

Jean Borotra, French Davis Cup star, took things easy to defeat Clifford March, 8-6, 6-4, 6-2, despite an injury to his shoulder suffered in an iron grating at the edge of the stand in attempting to return a stinging placement from March's racket.

LACOSTE WILL STAY

Forest Hills, Sept. 15.—Rene Lacoste, the French Davis Cup player, was late yesterday granted an extension of time to report for military duty in his native country, thus allowing him to continue to play in the National tennis championship here. Following word from his father that he had been called for immediate duty, he appealed to the French military authorities. The reply permitted the twenty-year-old star to remain until next Tuesday, when he will sail for France. The order required Lacoste to join the French Motor Corps at once, the penalty for failure to do so being detention.

HORNSBY FINDS ONE OF HIS OWN PLAYERS CHIEF HITTING RIVAL

Rogers Hornsby, player-pilot of the St. Louis Cardinals, has led the National League in batting for five straight seasons. From 1920 to 1924, inclusive, he's topped the field, setting a modern record of .424 last year.

On each of those occasions he's had the honors pretty safely tucked away long ere the end of the chase. In other words, Hornsby has been so far out in front by the first of September that there wasn't a chance to catch him.

This year things stack up a bit differently, however. For the great Rogers has a most formidable rival. He is Jim Bottomley, stellar first baseman on the same club.

With the campaign in the final stretch, Bottomley is close on the heels of his illustrious manager. And, while he might not be able to bridge the existing gap and nose out the boss, he nevertheless looms as Hornsby's stoutest rival for batting supremacy.

Bottomley has been hitting the square on the proverbial nail all season. He's been swinging a mean club just like he did two years ago when he crashed through with a mark of .371.

Hornsby has set as one of his pet ambitions the breaking of Ty Cobb's record of nine straight championships. With five now to his credit he has fond hopes of ploughing through as many more seasons at the head of the procession, thus hanging up a new mark.

Not so many weeks back the Cards' manager looked to have the 1925 clotting crown fairly well clinched. He had a commanding lead at the time. But up from the old rank and file came Bottomley bent on dethroning his chief, if possible.

It would, indeed, be a rather odd turn of the wheels of Fate if Hornsby were to have his batting string halted by one of his own charges.

The fight down the final stretch should be interesting all the way. It should furnish quite an attractive side issue to the pennant chase. For individual struggles always hold interest. And especially so where manager and player are the contestants.

DENOUNCES FANS OF BROOKLYN FOR VILE LANGUAGE

New York, Sept. 15.—A special district judge of the New York City Court today said that "first baseman" Jacques Fournier, of the Brooklyn National League team, has announced that he will not play another season with Brooklyn.

Fournier says that his treatment by the fans has been of such an abusive character as to make him wish to withdraw from baseball. He has a contract for next year for $12,500, but says he will cancel it.

Fighters Arrive For Title Bout At Arena Friday

Foley and Mascot Due Today to Begin Final Training For Ten-round Go

Should Title Change Hands Mascot Will Replace Foley in Vancouver Bout

Vic Foley and Billy Mascot, the principals in the ten-round bantamweight championship fight at the Arena Friday were to arrive from Vancouver this afternoon with all arrangements complete for the encounter with the exception of the choice of a third man in the ring. With the arrival of the fighters and their handlers it is hoped to solve this knotty problem. When the matter was apparently settled Mascot became as exacting as a champion on this point.

The early demand for tickets has given the promoters encouragement, and there is every indication there will be a good crowd. Again a number of ladies have been among the early callers, and judging from the attendance of the fair sex and their demand for tickets for Friday's tournament they are becoming good supporters of boxing. Many parents have also seized the opportunities of the special rate offered school children.

SUPPORTING CARD

Danny Pascoe and Brooks are both training hard with the hopes of winning a place as a semi-wind-up. Although no claims are made for them as talented exponents of the early callers, and judging from the attendance of the fair sex and their demand for tickets for Friday's tournament they are becoming good supporters of boxing. Many parents have also seized the opportunities of the special rate offered school children.

Danny Edwards has wired that he may be over for the fights. The stocky colored lad who made a great impression here when he met Al Davies, wants to fight in Victoria again. By wire he has challenged the winner of the main bout, and hopes to repeat the challenge from the ring. He has met Foley once before, and lost the decision, but Edwards, who has been busy since he left Victoria, seems ambitious to step into the ring with him again or with Mascot if the title should change hands.

Vancouver, Sept. 15.—Just what will happen to the proposed Foley and King bout here on September 25 if Mascot should be returned winner over Foley in his Victoria battle, is the question that is causing no little concern among the boxing fans here, and Eddie Thompson, a particular. Thompson's worry is caused by the fact that he is the manager of King, and sees visions of his return bout with Foley being all summed up if Mascot should annex the title in Friday's bout.

Jack Allen, Foley's manager is being severely criticized for according a tough opponent like Mascot so close to the King bout. Mascot has already come within an ace of knocking Foley out in one of his previous bouts, and a draw was the best that Foley could do with him in a return engagement. Allen, however, says that he already has Mascot's signature to an agreement to battle King in place of Foley in the event that he should upset the Canadian champion.

Making two points that Allen is coming in for criticism on from the Foley supporters. A good-sized delegation of Vancouver fans will make the trip over to the Island Friday to sit in on the Foley-Mascot battle.

Wms Her Second Qualifying Round Within Seven Days

Mrs. Fraser, Formerly Alex Stirling, is Winner in Canadian Ladies' Open

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—For the second time in seven days, Mrs. W. G. Fraser, formerly Miss Alex Stirling, turned in the best score in a qualifying round of a Canadian ladies' golf championship. In the closed championship open to members of Canadian clubs only, last Monday, she had an 81 on the Rivermead Club, leading Miss Ada MacKenzie of Massachusetts by six strokes.

Yesterday the Royal Ottawa player had a round of 83, five over par, but two strokes better than Miss MacKenzie.

Thirty-two players, with cards of 102, the same as played off for the championship flight in the closing round of the championship. The event, the twenty-two Canadians are well divided, Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto each having six in the charmed circle, London two and twelve and Winnipeg one each. Of the twelve who finished within ten strokes of the leaders, six are Canadians, and as a result of this, and the fact that Mrs. Fraser is at the top of her game, there is a strong hope that the title will come back to the Dominion for the first time since 1919.

The draw for the championship flight was an automatic one, and it looks as if Mrs. Fraser has the easier half of the draw, as both Miss MacKenzie and Mrs. Hurd are in the bottom half.

Veteran Runner Breaks Records And Wins Title

New York, Sept. 15.—Albert "Whitey" Michelson, veteran cyclist champion in the first running of the event at athletic games of New York Chapter, Knights of Columbus, who Port Chester athlete defeated a field of thirty-two, including the Olympic marston champion, A. Albin Stenroos of Finland and his companion, Willie Kyrönen.

Announcement was made by the officials that Michelson has broken three American distance records, stepping twelve miles in 1:06:40, thirteen miles in 1:12:21 4-5, and fourteen miles in 1:18:09 3-5.

Running in what he announced would be his farewell track appearance, Jole Ray, veteran Illinois A.C. athlete, trailed his ancient rival, Willie Ritola, the Finnish-American A.C. across the line in a two-mile handicap event. Ray was a poor fourth.

Too Careless Eastern Rugby Season To Open In Three Weeks

Queen's and McGill Will Have Last Year's Teams Practically Intact

Varsity Will Rebuild Backline; Argos Have Extra Men For Every Position

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—With the opening of the Eastern rugby football season barely three weeks away, the coaches of the various gridiron organizations are busy putting the candidates through their paces.

From Queen's University, the titleholders, at Kingston comes word that Captain McKelvie, Wright, and How are working out under Coach W. P. Hughes and that Chantler, Brown, Carl Voss, Lewis and Morris will soon be in uniform.

"Lis" Walker has not yet turned out but is expected to do so to-day. "Bub" Britton, star half-back of Balm Beach, Ontario Rugby Football Union champions, has decided to enter Queen's and will be welcomed on the team.

REBUILDING VARSITY

Coach "Biddy" Barr of the University of Toronto, will have to build a new backline behind Captain Warren Snyder, who is being equigant and Mills will not attend the university this year. There are also several big holes in the line which will have to be filled by new material.

Toronto Argos, of the "Big Four," are hard at work preparing for their opening game against Hamilton Tigers at Hamilton, Ontario, October 2. There will be a great battle for regular berths this year with two or three candidates for every job.

From the wealth of material now available, Ottawa should have little trouble in moulding a first-class line.

LOWER GRAIN RAIL CHARGES ARE IN FORCE

Reduction in Rates of Benefit to B.C. Ports Starts To-day

Premier Oliver Confers With Hon. J. H. King in City of Vancouver

Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 15.—Premier Oliver arrived from Victoria this morning and conferred with Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, at noon regarding railway freight rate equalization. This afternoon he will confer with G. G. McGee, K.C., rate counsel for the Provincial Government, and will hold a consultation later with local members of the Legislature.

"The position of the Government on the application designed to reduce the question of the order of the board equalizing grain rates westward can be stated in one sentence," said Premier Oliver. "It is this: The application of the P.R. will be opposed, and if the order is rescinded there will be an immediate appeal to the Governor-in-Council."

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The new railway rates on prairie grain and flour westbound to Pacific ports came into effect to-day. At the close of business the tariffs embodying the revised rates had not been received in the office of the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada, at whose order rates on grain and flour westbound are to be placed on the same basis as rates on the commodities to eastern ports.

It was explained at the office of the Railway Commission that the non-arrival of the actual tariffs probably had no significance, the railways perhaps not having had enough time to get the printed rates ready. The rates, however, it was said, would go into effect automatically when the tariffs were filed or not.

CONFERENCE CALLED
Vancouver, Sept. 15.—Invitations were wired by Mayor Louis D. Taylor to-day to the mayors of all the large cities in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia to attend a conference in the city to discuss joint action on the railway freight rate question.

As soon as replies are received from the prairie mayors a date will be set for the conference in Vancouver. In addition to the freight rate issue, the railway board is to discuss the question of export grain rates, Mayor Taylor said he expected the mayors of Western Canada would rally as a unit to carry on an intensive campaign in Eastern Canada for "justice for the Western provinces."

About twenty-five mayors from prairie and interior British Columbia cities had been invited to the conference. In addition a large number will be invited from lower mainland and Vancouver Island points.

UNCERTAINTY EXISTS
Vancouver, Sept. 15.—Uncertainty prevails among local traffic and business men to-day on the subject of export grain rates. Legally the rates are in effect, but rate clerks, and even officials of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways in the West, had not been notified of any change early this afternoon.

"It is a strange situation. Unless the companies wire the tariffs to all the rate clerks in the West to-night or to-morrow the application of the rates must be delayed," said E. V. Ablett, traffic expert, to-day.

The City Council last night approved a recommendation from the Legislative committee that any legislation permitting the city manager to be a municipal government, should not be made compulsory.

The City Council last night went on record as prepared to discuss with O.K. Bay questions of amalgamation or any other intermunicipal problems. The Oak Bay Council will be advised that, at the present time, Victoria has no definite amalgamation proposals to offer. Recently the Oak Bay Council refused an invitation to share in appointing a small investigating committee, and asked Victoria to submit to Oak Bay definite amalgamation proposals.

FIRE MARSHALS GIVE ALL POWER

Council Says His is Final Authority in Ordering Fire Apparatus

Full power was given the fire marshal of Esquimalt to command all or any fire fighting apparatus in case of a fire outbreak, by vote in the Esquimalt Council last night. At a recent fire the use of a fire truck had been denied the fire marshal, and the question of his authority arose at last night's meeting. The council upheld Councillor Barnett in his stand that the fire marshal should have power to call out fire fighting apparatus at any time.

Following the council's investigation of coal prices in Esquimalt, a letter of explanation was sent to the council from J. E. Painter and Sons and the Victoria Fuel Company, who stated that in some instances the high cost of freight to Esquimalt made an extra charge necessary. The council decided to place lists of tax sale property in order to bring better results than were obtained under the recent tax sale of the municipality, and these lists will be displayed in stores of the municipality. Only three tax sales were held in Esquimalt out of a total of ninety-five offered.

The Reeve and Councillor Pomroy were appointed to the Esquimalt Convention of the Good Roads League and the Union of B.C. Municipalities to be held in Victoria September 21, 22 and 23. A quantity of other routine business was done by the council.

DEAD CHINESE WAS TO APPEAR IN COURT TO-DAY

Gunman Alleged to Have Slain Wah Fong, Was Among Bail Prisoners

Out of the twenty-three Chinese who were to appear before Magistrate George Jay in the city police court this morning, following a raid last week on the premises at 54 1/2 Cormorant Street, only twenty-one were up for hearing, for one has since committed suicide. One of the original number, Wong Chee, acted as informer for the police, and is not being prosecuted. The second, Wong Ching, has, since his arrest allegedly killed one man and subsequently blown his own brains out. He was allowed out on bail last week, together with the other accused, who were found in the rooms on Cormorant Street, alleged to have been a gambling house.

Stuart Henderson appeared for the defendant Chinese to-day, among whom were two women. One of these women had $700 on her person at the time of her arrest. Asked where she had obtained this money she said it was her wages. She is an employee in a restaurant.

Chien Fry, who led the raid against the alleged gaming house, took the stand to-day, and under cross-examination stated that the key with which he had opened the door to the rooms wherein the accused were taken, was obtained from "a friend of the police." He had to break into the room through the inner door, however, he said.

Wong Chee, informer, and police officers, gave evidence for the prosecution. The prosecution, under Claude L. Harrison finished its case this morning, but Mr. Henderson continued into the afternoon, negotiating a longer session of the court.

One of the witnesses of the defence, Wong Kim, who carried the $700 at the time of her arrest, testified under oath, that the informer, Chee's evidence was false.

The case continues this afternoon.

WATER DEBATE AT CITY HALL WAS ABORTIVE

Saanich Couples Elk Lake With Low Water Terms

Representatives of Saanich and Victoria this morning, in Mayor Penderay's office at the City Hall, discussed water supply matters affecting the two municipalities, but arrived at no basis for agreement.

The city's interests were advanced by Alderman Todd and Water Commissioner Preston, in addition to Mayor Penderay. The Saanich delegation consisted of Reeve Robert Macnicol, Councillors Kirkham, Graham, Vantreight and Stubbs, and Municipal Clerk Sewell. In the course of a debate continuing for over one hour, Mayor Penderay suggested that the meeting come to an agreement on the basis of the offer he understood Saanich to have made. The offer, he admitted, a contract over a term of years based on a five cent rate for five years and six cents thereafter, plus an increase calculated on payment to Victoria of the saving Saanich will make as a result of not having to spend large sums on connection services to the Goldstream mains.

Reeve Macnicol declared that Mayor Penderay was in error in assuming that any offer had actually been made to the Esquimalt Company by Saanich, or that a minimum yearly account of $25,000 had been offered. He admitted, however, that the Mayor's information as to the six-cent rate under consideration by Saanich was correct.

A QUID-PRO-QUO
Elk Lake was intimately tied into the Saanich-Victoria water negotiations, asserted Reeve Macnicol, and Mayor Penderay promptly asked if Saanich would sign a "hands-off" agreement with the city, if suitable water concessions were accorded the municipality. Reeve Macnicol considered that such a course would be approved by the ratepayers, and a by-law would be popular if it provided for suspension of Saanich efforts to induce the Legislature to abrogate the city's watershed rights for the term of years covered by a Victoria-Saanich water agreement at acceptable low rates.

Eventually it was agreed that the Saanich Council should submit to Victoria a proposal to what it considers to be a fair rate for Victoria to charge Saanich for bulk supply of water, and the city council will likewise prepare an offer of what the city can contract to supply over a term of years. Both statements of terms, it was agreed, will be prepared in the shortest possible time, and if possible will be considered early next week.

STOCK PRICES HERE TO BE SET ON FLOUR BY OPEN BIDS NOW

New Rule to End Over-the-Counter and Curbstone Selling, Unfair to Public

Members of the Victoria Stock Exchange at a special meeting this morning decided to end all over-the-counter sales of stocks listed on the exchange. By a unanimous vote they passed the resolution making it compulsory that all buying and selling of listed stocks by members of the exchange be done only on the floor of the exchange so that fully open and competitive prices will be established.

"This will eliminate the curbstone broker and the jobbing of prices which have worked to the disadvantage of the public," said E. P. F. Roe, secretary in making the announcement. "The wide range of prices which many investors have met with when they desired to buy or sell local stocks has not met with the good will of the public and it is the desire of the leading financial houses of the city to check up in the interests of the public and the business generally that has led to this change."

"Under the new rule a customer giving a broker an order to buy or sell will not have his order filled immediately by the broker, but will have to wait until the next session of the exchange when the broker will fill the order at the best price offered. This will cut down the wide spread in prices and the public will be assured of getting the right price in either buying or selling."

"The system the Victoria exchange is inaugurating is the same as in effect on all large exchanges."

The new trading rule will come into effect here on Thursday.

It was also decided to have two sessions of the exchange daily, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., because of the busy market that is developing.

List of the qualified members of the exchange who will handle all business under the new regulations was issued as follows: R. G. Christie, R. B. P. Hunter, H. E. Honnings, A. E. Robertson, E. P. F. Roe, R. P. Clark & Company, R. F. Castle of Pemberton and Son, G. A. Melville, R. H. Wright, S. C. Whitling, A. R. Ross, R. M. Stewart of Stewart Land, A. J. McPhee of Standard Securities, R. E. A. Diespecker of Mason and Diespecker, H. Leiser of Greenwood & Company, W. S. Campbell of B.C. Bond Corporation, C. L. H. Branson of R. P. Clark & Company, J. H. Gillespie of Gillespie, Hart and Todd.

CANOPIC COMPLETES CREW AT HALIFAX

J. Havelock Wilson, M.P., Explains View of Unofficial Strike

Halifax, Sept. 15.—Effects of the unofficial strike of British seamen were reported on the Halifax waterfront for the first time to-day when the White Star liner Canopic, loading apples for the United Kingdom, sent out a call for eight firemen and seamen to replace temporary men taken on in Liverpool on the last trip out and who became deserters while the steamer was in Boston before coming here.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—Appealing for recognition of the principle of collective bargaining and collective responsibility on the part of employers, J. Havelock Wilson, M.P., presiding official of the British Seamen's Union, yesterday declared during an address under the auspices of the Navy League of Canada that the strike affecting ocean shipping was on those lines which had refused to enter into contracts with the union. He said the practice of some employers in the Old Country was to hand those of the corresponding day of last year. A total of 1,875,000 bushels were marketed and 1,155,000 bushels loaded on September 12 this year, as against 209,000 bushels marketed and 222,000 bushels loaded on September 12, 1924.

A total of 5,666,000 bushels is now in store, and the total loadings since August 1 have reached 9,721 cars, containing 12,026,000 bushels, against 2,423 cars and 3,309,000 bushels in the same period of 1924.

Saskatchewan loaded 717,000 bushels on Saturday and marketed 1,309,000 bushels. The total in store in the province is now 3,280,000 bushels. Alberta marketings were 123,000 bushels, loadings 76,000 bushels, and in store 697,000 bushels. Since August 1 215 cars of grain have been delivered to Vancouver by Canadian National.

Inspections on Saturday and Sunday totaled 1,152 cars, against 321 cars on the same dates last year.

Seattle, Sept. 15.—After loading 12,000 boxes of apples and other freight consisting of flour, lumber and copper, the Dutch motorship Dintelyk is scheduled to leave here for ports on the Columbia river, where she is to take on additional freight before sailing for Europe.

The Greek steamship Dionysios Stathatos, first vessel flying the flag of Greece to call at Seattle, departed here Monday for New Westminster, B.C., where she is to load about 1,000,000 feet of lumber for Australia.

The steamship Lillian Luckenbach of the Luckenbach Steamship Company arrived here at 7 o'clock Monday night from New York, making the voyage in twenty-four days and 19 hours. She is said to be the first freighter to make the trip in less than twenty-five days. The Lillian Luckenbach brought a cargo for local distribution in Seattle and Tacoma. She is to load 2,500,000 feet of lumber and 1,500 tons of general cargo for ports on the Atlantic coast.

MARKETING OF GRAIN IS WELL ADVANCED

Vancouver Receives 218 Cars Since August 1 Over C.N.R.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 15.—More than fifteen million bushels of grain marketed during the first twelve days of September constitutes a record for Canadian National lines in Western Canada, according to officials of the line here.

The total marketings at Canadian National points from September 1 to September 12 were 15,012,000 bushels, as against 2,288,000 bushels in the same period of 1924 and 8,792,000 bushels in 1923.

Loadings during the period were 10,974,000 bushels, against 1,974,000 in 1924, an increase of 9,000,000 bushels and 5,597,000 in 1923, an increase this year of more than 5,000,000 bushels.

Saturday's marketings and loadings at Canadian National points were more than eight times heavier than those of the corresponding day of last year. A total of 1,875,000 bushels were marketed and 1,155,000 bushels loaded on September 12 this year, as against 209,000 bushels marketed and 222,000 bushels loaded on September 12, 1924.

A total of 5,666,000 bushels is now in store, and the total loadings since August 1 have reached 9,721 cars, containing 12,026,000 bushels, against 2,423 cars and 3,309,000 bushels in the same period of 1924.

SETTLEMENT OF MILL DISPUTE IS VIEWED FAVORABLY

Settlement of Differences in Orient May Promote Peace

Commenting on the settlement of differences between the Chinese and Japanese in regard to the mill dispute in Japan, an announcement from the Japanese consulate at Vancouver has this to say:

"Every newspaper in Japan had expressed congratulations on the solving of the dispute raised by the Chinese workers in the Japanese mills at Shanghai."

"Only two of the papers, The Hochi and The Tokyo Asahi, have commented upon the terms of the settlement. While settlement of the dispute, they also offer congratulations on the settlement, is due to a compromise between the sanction of the Japanese government and the payment of wages for the duration of the strike."

"The Osaka Asahi said: 'The independent solution by the Japanese of the dispute in Shanghai is to be considered the forerunner of a complete settlement of the whole situation in Shanghai.'"

"The Independent further has personal interest, as by a breaking of faith with the other powers."

"The paper made further comment as follows: 'We must always look at the relative importance of things. To let the Japanese and British in Shanghai entertain feelings of separation because of the struggle for power begun by them both for the supply of electricity in the hands of the immigration authorities here. It is understood that they camp here to be accommodated at the military camp at Wyre, under surveillance, but not as prisoners.'

"The Osaka Asahi also warned the Japanese in China to be very careful in their actions."

STRIKERS ARE HELD AT CAPETOWN CAMP

Capetown, Sept. 15 (Canadian Press Cable, via Reuters).—About four hundred of the British seamen who have been on strike because of an announced wage reduction of one pound a month, were held in the Nelson hospital Sunday, aged forty-seven. It is understood that they camp here to be accommodated at the military camp at Wyre, under surveillance, but not as prisoners.

ON MAIDEN RUN

St. John, N.B., Sept. 15.—The steamer Johnston, Captain Cline, docked here yesterday on her maiden trip from Manchester, Eng.

PILOT BOAT MAKES SPEEDY DASH FOR EVERETT WITH PARTY

New Yorker Hurrying to Bed-side of Dying Relative Makes Connection

The details of a thrilling dash made by a party of four passengers who departed from the Empress of Asia here last week to make train connection at Seattle were told by A. H. Hebb, manager of the Great Northern Railway office here to-day.

Hurrying to the bedside of a dying relative, H. Rand, Orient representative of a New York house was anxious to catch the New Oriental Limited of the Great Northern line out of Seattle. The Empress of Asia docked here in the late afternoon and the train was due to start from her Seattle-Victoria air mail service fell down when it was seen that only two passengers could be landed on time, and the other two would have to be brought on a second trip.

It was at this stage that A. H. Hebb thought of chartering the speed boat of the B.C. Pilotage Association, which he did without further delay. The pilotage launch cleared at 5 p.m. with her party and landed them at Everett at 7.55 p.m.

The message from Victoria to Everett was made at a speed of over twenty knots an hour in the teeth of a stiff breeze. The pilotage launch shipped seas over bows in a steady procession and even the members of the party who went along for the adventure, clasped their hands as one of the most thrilling rides of their lives. With ten minutes to spare the pilot boat pulled into Everett, and her crew helped the party on board the New Oriental Limited for New York.

St. Johns, Nfld., Sept. 15.—W. G. Holloway, seventy, and his son, aged thirty, were drowned Sunday in the Humber when the canoe in which they were salmon fishing upset. The bodies were recovered.

THE SAFE HAVEN

The Marquise de Marzel waited in the garden of her villa for the arrival of the evening train that would bring her guests.

Patricia trusted her; she had written her the entire story. During the days of their war work together, Madame de Marzel had become very fond of Patricia. She would gladly have done her any favor. The present opportunity afforded her more than the proffer of friendship. Poverty stalked uncomfortably close to Madame's trim heels. To have paying guests in her household—rich "American" guests—meant a great deal to one who had to manage cleverly to preserve appearances.

Madame de Marzel was a worldly woman. She was moreover a tolerant one and clever enough to ask no questions. What she did not understand, what she did not personally subscribe to, she treated with a shrug and a lift of her arched eyebrows.

The Marquise was petite, not wholly pretty, but she had an arresting charm and distinction. Her dark eyes contrasting oddly with her blond hair, were almond shaped. They hinted at some far-Eastern strain that long generations ago might have mixed with the blood of France. She had never lacked admirers but her heart in early girlhood had been given to one man, the Marquis, who was killed in the early days of the war. She lived alone now, cherishing his memory. At this particular time, she looked forward with lively curiosity to the arrival of the three guests who were arriving by the evening train.

When they came at last, conveyed in a ramshackle station voiture, she rose from her chair under the mimosa and advanced to the gateway where she greeted them with dignity and graciousness.

Patricia, she kissed warmly on each cheek. Her languorous Oriental eyes opened a trifle before Madame's loveliness.

"Quelle est belle!" she remarked to herself.

She gave Cartwright a quick, searching glance and many things that had puzzled her became clear. She was very clever, this little Marquise. She had encountered Cartwright's type before and again she spoke inwardly:

"La pauvre enfant" and her eyes returned a little pityingly to Madame's youthful freshness.

"But how weary you must be after your long journey. You must rest before dining. I'll take you to my room. My old 'bonne' will show you to your rooms. Ask her for the key, and you, ma chere, she laid her hand on Patricia's arm, "you have not forgotten the excellent French you learned to speak in Paris."

Patricia shook her head smilingly.

"I have had so little opportunity to speak with anyone except Americans that I believe my letters to you constituted my whole use of the language, and they must have been filled with mistakes. I am not at all tired. Honore—may I remain here with you in the garden for a while? The sea is so beautiful at this hour. I don't want to miss a moment of it."

Madame was unwrapping yards of peach colored chiffon from about her hat and throat where they had been carefully placed to protect her fairness from the grime of travel. She shuddered prettily.

"Don't mention the sea to me; I feel that I can never look at it again without a horrid remembrance. I was frightfully seasick, Madame, all the way over," she explained.

"Ah, but here you will forget all that. My sea is very peaceful. You will find calm and rest here and the sea is a good friend. It meets one's moods and it gives one faith. No one can fail to believe in eternity when he looks at the sea."

Madame turned away quickly.

"I am much more tired than I thought. I'll try to get a nap before dinner."

When she and Cartwright had gone, conducted by the old French woman, the Marquise drew Patricia to a seat beside her.

"And you, ma petite, tell me something of yourself. You are in mourning, n'est-ce pas?" Her glance traveled down Patricia's black frock, noted the sombre little hat that framed her dark hair.

Patricia shook her head while her eyes turned involuntarily Eastward toward the sea.

fended her grievously, Mr. Cartwright.

"I was too harsh," he conceded, "I'm sorry and I'll tell her so before dinner."

"You have no right to be harsh toward Madge, Mr. Cartwright," Patricia reminded him. "She has sacrificed everything that makes a woman's life worth living—for you. She should have nothing but tenderness and consideration from you."

"If she sacrificed everything, she did it with her eyes open," he replied quickly.

Before the scorn in Patricia's eyes, she flushed uncomfortably and muttered:

"I beg your pardon. I take that back. It wasn't particularly gallant, I'll admit."

She was silent and he continued in an attempt at justifying himself.

Madge did a foolish thing to-day which embarrassed us both publicly. I dare say she told you about it. The whole episode got under my skin and I lost my temper. I repeat that I'm sorry. But I think you'll concede, Miss Fleming, that she should not have attempted such a reckless thing as to speak first to Americans who are fully aware of the entire situation.

tion. Especially not in a public restaurant, for all the world to see us cut."

Patricia nodded gravely.

"I understand your point perfectly. But you must not forget that Madge is only a child at heart. She acts on impulse. Furthermore, she has been spoiled, as you know. It is difficult for her to realize that she won't be forgiven for everything she has done by people who once adored her. The lesson of learning differently will be very bitter. Since you love her, you should spare her as much as you can. You are a man of wide experience. You know the standards of the world. Don't, I beg of you, allow her to subject herself to humiliation. You can protect her a great deal by using discretion about the places you go to and the people you encounter. That is all I wished to say."

Cartwright found himself being dismissed from her presence.

It was a novel experience for him and aroused his unwilling admiration.

To be continued.

Fawning and flattery are the worst poison of true feeling.

E.D. and B.C. Rail Plans Discussed

Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, asked regarding the railway's action on the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia line, said the proposals of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Canadian National Railway respecting the operation of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia line were now receiving the consideration of the Government.

The company was willing, he said, if the Government approved, to continue operation of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia line and to utilize its colonization department in increasing settlement in that district.

Mr. Beatty, with a party of company officials, is engaged in his annual tour of inspection over Western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

CROP TO STIMULATE ALL BUSINESS, SAYS TORONTO PUBLISHER

Monetary Times Head Impressed With Way Things Are Shaping Up

Conditions in Central Canada, resulting from the enormous sum of money that is now beginning to be distributed among the farmers of the Prairies for the above average crop, will have a decidedly stimulating effect on business here, as well as in the manufacturing, financial and distributive centres of the East, according to James J. Salmond of Toronto, president and general manager of The Monetary Times, who is in Victoria to-day.

Mr. Salmond is on an investigation tour of the West, studying conditions in every Province and in the leading communities so as to be able to furnish accurate information to the financial and business interests of the country that rely on his publication for their facts.

G. W. Goodall of Winnipeg, Western manager of The Monetary Times, is with Mr. Salmond on this tour. They will be here until Wednesday. Yesterday they discussed financial problems with Premier Oliver and Government officials, and are also meeting local bankers.

"Conditions are very satisfactory in Western Canada," Mr. Salmond said. "We are very much impressed with the way things are shaping up in this part of the country. They ought to have a beneficial effect on the business of the country as a whole."

Mr. Salmond said that one of the things he has found to criticize as he has come across Canada is the habit the people have of thinking too much locally on national issues.

"In Winnipeg they were grumbling for fear a few carloads of the increased production of wheat from our prairies would find their way to British Columbia ports rather than into the Winnipeg yards," Mr. Salmond went on. "The trouble is that we are all thinking too locally. We are all the one country, and should be anxious to see all parts of it go ahead. This tendency is not only found in the West, but also in the East, as I think Montreal, Winnipeg and the East generally have been taking too narrow a view."

Trotsky Believes Britain is Headed For Revolution

New York, Sept. 15. (Canadian Press)—Britain has entered the stage of "capitalist disintegration," and is "headed for revolution," Leon Trotsky declares in a new book, "Whither England?" An American edition of the book was published here to-day.

The Russian leader repudiates the desire to spread revolutionary propaganda, and declares his study of economic conditions has led him to the belief Great Britain is on the verge of a series of great revolutionary upheavals.

Britain's progress in the path of revolution, as Trotsky sees it, is due to economic conditions caused by the industrial growth of the United States.

"The powerful and constantly growing influence of the United States on world affairs," the book says, "is rendering more and more impossible the situation in British industry, British trade, British finances and British diplomacy."

The book paints a gloomy picture of the future of the Old Country, but is no more cheering for the people of the United States, for in the end he predicts disaster for the United States when "the inevitable hour will strike for American capital also."

Mother Killed Boy and Herself

Owen Sound, Ont., Sept. 15.—Mrs. Stanley Foster of Mount Horeb, Koppel Township, and her six-year-old son, David Lloyd, died yesterday as a result of strychnine poisoning. It is believed the mother, who had been in poor health and was suffering from severe pains in the head, became insane and after administering the poison to her child, took the remainder of a two-dram vial herself.

TEAMSTERS VISIT CITY AS FEATURE OF CONVENTION OUTING

Seattle Convention Delegates Give Civic Welcome at Banquet

Victoria to-day welcomed over four hundred delegates and ladies attending the annual convention of the Teamsters and Chauffeurs International Union, now in session at Seattle.

The delegates arrived in Victoria at 1:15 o'clock on the Seattle ferry, and attended a banquet at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium, where they were given a civic welcome by Mayor Carl Pendray.

Mayor Pendray pointed out that Victoria "is the paradise of the teamster and the chauffeur," and asked his audience, in the course of their tour during their visit, to note the universal distribution of paving throughout the city, and the fact that practically no hills impede swift movement.

"We have no snow in Victoria, disagreeable weather is notably absent throughout the year."

"Conditions here so nearly approach the ideal that members of the chauffeur profession, as they have often noted, prefer to sleep in their cars instead of seeking shelter while awaiting patronage."

After the afternoon the delegates and their ladies were entertained with tours around Victoria, organized by the officers of the Victoria local, the visitors returning to Seattle on this afternoon's sailing of the ferry.

CITY HALL PARTY INSPECTS WORK AT ELK LAKE TO-DAY

Mr. Justice Martin With Aldermen and Officials Make Tour

Mr. Justice Martin, with Aldermen Todd, Shanks and Marchant and civic officials this afternoon made a tour of Elk Lake golf course, preliminary to informal discussion of this year's expenditures scheduled for Friday afternoon at the City Hall council chamber.

At last night's session of the council the aldermen discussed a request from Mr. Justice Martin that a visit to Elk Lake precede the discussion on Friday, which he agreed to attend.

Alderman Todd considered the visit would be a waste of the valuable time of highly paid officials, as all information is available in city hall records, open to any ratepayer.

Since Mr. Justice Martin is now the spokesman for a large faction of ratepayers who believe irregular expenditures have been made at Elk Lake, he considered that a tour would simplify the discussion to be held on Friday.

Mayor Pendray regretted inability to accompany Mr. Justice Martin, as requested, and supported the views of Alderman Woodward. He then appointed the three aldermen as official council delegates on the inspection party.
